Spoken:

Everybody's got a devil and an angel
Just depends on which one you listen to
That makes you what kind of person
You are, I guess. Me? When I go out,
I just can't help but get the dirtiest thoughts in my mind.

You think I'm beautiful, baby,
You bet I'm lickable, fuckable,
Why don't you come and tell me so
Cause I'll give anything a go
Well if I like the way you move
We can do it again
Cause baby I won't be satisfied
Only being your friend.
Now come on
Take off your shades
So I can see your pretty face
And put them lips to my thighs
So I can give you a taste
I know that's very cheeky of me
Since this is our first date
But you've got me sweatin' boy,
Maybe this is a mistake

Chorus:

I've got dirty thoughts on my mind
All the time (yeah yeah yeah yeah)
I've got dirty thoughts on my mind
All the time (yeah yeah yeah)

I've been to all-girl boarding schools
For six years or more
No matter what the nuns taught me
I still act like a whore
For many years I thought Hell, what a waste what am I here for?
But I'm an angel, so start prayin'
Heaven's on the dance floor.

Bridge:

I'll have you begging, I'll have you begging for more

I'll have you begging, heaven's on the dance floor
I'll have you begging, I'll have you begging for more
I'll have you begging, heaven's on the dance floor

Chorus

You think I'm beautiful baby
You bet I'm lickable, edible
You see only the cover though boy
It's you comin' to my show
Oh your enforcer, prize feel the temperature risin'
We're eating mangoes and peaches, sipping tequila sunrise.

Chorus

I know you're crazy about me, yeah you'd do anything for me
Throw petals down where I'm walking, in bed you're always adoring
Remember, I told you from the start that I could break your heart
Now here's some pieces and some glue to take you back to the start
