"Changes"

Visit "Changes" on MotoLyrics.com

the colours are shifting, and the floor
below me is drifting,
oh god, i'm changing,
it's not just a phase
i'm going through,
it echoes in my head,
old friends,
where are you now,
you said our time
would last forever,
old friends,
did you walk the line?
it's so fine
i really hope you
made it through,
maybe it's better
to leave this behind,
is it only me who romanticise?
old friends,
good bye, good bye,
i guess i have to
forget the past for a while,
i remember, when we
grew up together,
i thought we'd never change,
i thought we'd never go separate ways
