"Never Leaving You"

It was a couple of years ago when I first met you the summer had just begun I remember from day one, when we first hung out we had so much fun
And from that moment on, I instantly could feel that you were someone I could trust And if I ever needed someone to talk to calling you was a must oh yeah

I know you'll be there for me
By my side no matter how hard things would be
I know you'll be faithful and true
That's why I decided I'm never leaving you

I never had a friend like you, who get's me the way you can No matter what you'll ever tell me you know I'd understand
You can show me your true colors it doesn't really matter to me
As long as we spend some time together everything's as good as can be

I know you'll be there for me
By my side no matter how hard things would be
I know you'll be faithful and true
That's why I decided I'm never leaving you

This is a perfect day to have fun, life has just begun Let's make all our dreams come true, I just wanna be with you

I know you'll be there for me
By my side no matter how hard things would be
I know you'll be faithful and true
That's why I decided I'm never leaving you
