Sundown again. the sails have lost their wind. the feeling's left my head and my chest but it's the best that i've been. soon. don't come back so soon. i won't be your fool. wake me when the fog rolls out. sundown again. the cold comes creepin' in. the feeling's gone, it's lost on this song, and you you're a tough crowd to win. soon. don't come back so soon. i won't be your fool. wake me when the fog rolls out. sundown's got no love and you won't let go of it. sundown's got no love and you won't let it out.
