[Verse 1:]

Stand tall, it doesn't matter; walk.

So you went here to there you came back and you're scared.

Where's the shame? you learned a lesson in life.

They tied a rope around the neck of the poor and the blind this time

[Pre-chorus:]

These lines are for you seed to grow,

Into the man you thought you were,

And you know I would have wasted all that time

And I would have come back scared today.

[Verse 2:]

You walked that night the darkest streets I know,

Contemplating; when are you going to get your life and come back home.

[screamed] Rope tied- trap drawn this time.

Concentrate; standing straight to take what's yours.

[Pre-chorus]

[Chorus:]

But don't you ever give up; you got it.

Sing hallelujah for the flame inside.

Just cause they burned all your witnesses opposing your convictions;

Know you'll survive this life with these lines.

[Bridge:]

So when your ticket left you right back again to where you started from;

You can't look back and can't replace-yea,

Your ticket left you right back again to where you started from

But can't look back and can't [gang vocals] replace.

[Pre-chorus]

[Chorus]
