[Verse 1:]

I'm, waiting to see if...
Something's going to come of the tragedies I've faced
And for most I cannot be held back-this game is simple now,
It's all laid out f'me in black and white so follow (for) the I've led
And the life of the things to come.

[Chorus:]

What's going on with my time and place,
Well my educated guess is life defined whoaoaoa,
Sit back and enjoy the ride...
You know it only happens once so everything is alright.

[Verse 2:]

In mind... I'm racing now it's got me worried
Will there ever be sanctity for the life I lead
And the life of the world to come.

[Chorus:]

What's going on with my time and place,
Well my educated guess is life defined whoaoaoao,
Sit back and enjoy the ride...
You know it only happens once so everything is alright.

[Bridge:]

Life; I cannot read at all, a book with words
But a scrambled scene is painted poorly over them...
I'll take it all in steps to come; and let me know the very one...
I'll take to be right here... and go around again...
These crooked steps have reached the end
And the simplest sins aren't so simple again that teach me how to live.
