[Verse 1:]

In your room you're waiting for the cure
(it's a go last chance embrace your son), I love you too
(with intent to kill the one we love), I miss you
(we hold you down inject that drug), I cried for you.

But. as. the. days. went. by. we.

[Pre-chorus:]

(left you, like you leave us now... we; killed you and you taught us how.)

[Chorus:]

This day is ours but the night falls staining the day
So take the pill I love you to death-cry your eyes out
sleep to die now.
Cock it back with the cross hairs aimed at the brain to
maim or kill,
You're taking the day the night your life and mine and realize you're never coming home.

[Verse 2:]

It's not a game to get away. bite your tongue.
Bloodline; it's a first, a foretaste.
So separate, escape your fate, fill your lungs with passion.
(take away) (your presence) (self control) (not present
now)

[Bridge:]

Take away, take away, take away.

[Chorus:]

This day is ours but the night falls staining the day
So take the pill I love you to death-cry your eyes out
sleep to die now.
Cock it back with the cross hairs aimed at the brain to
maim or kill,
You're taking (the day, the night, your life, and never coming home.
The day, the night, your life, and never coming home.)
