Ooooooooooh baby

This won't be, a surprise for you
I guess giving up, is the best that I can do
This is where, it has to end
So where do I start, tell me where do I begin

Isn't there someplace that you'd rather be Spending your nights with the one that you need Any fool knows what you're feeling for him
So i've got to swallow my pride (swallow my pride)
It's time we both said goodbye

Cuz you talk, a little too much about Michael
I watch your eyes follow him when he walks in the room
(ooooh)
You talk, a little too much about Michael Cuz if he's all you have to talk about
I just know that he's all that you dream about
It's breaking my heart cuz there is no doubt you'd rather be, with Michael

I could never, ever hate you
Time after time, we've tried to work this through
So i'll try to make this as easy as can be baby
Since you don't, don't wanna stay
But you don't know how to leave

Oh I know there's someplace that you'd rather be Somebody's waiting for you patiently
Put aside all of the guilt you may feel Cuz your heart longs for the day
To go our own separate ways

You talk, a little too much about Michael (ooooh)
I watch your eyes follow him when he walks in the room
(when he walks in the room)
You talk, a little too much about Michael
Cuz if he's all that you have to talk about
I just know that he's all that you dream about (all that you dream about)

It's breaking my heart cuz there is no doubt you'd rather be

It's taking all the strength, to be the man I can be
I must accept the fact that you will never, ever, ever love me

You talk, a little too much about Michael (he's all I hear you talkin about)
I watch your eyes follow him when he walks in the room
(oooh baby)
You talk, a little too much about Michael Cuz if he's all that you have to talk about (all you talk about)
I just know that he's all that you dream about (all that you dream about)
It's breaking my heart cuz there is no doubt you'd rather be...

You talk, a little too much about Michael
I watch your eyes follow him when he walks in the room
(it's breaking my heart, it's breaking my heart)
You talk, a little too much about Michael
Cuz if he's all that you have to talk about
I just know that he's all that you dream about
It's breaking my heart cuz there is no doubt you'd rather be, with Michael
