[Shut up]

So here we go again
You're opening your mouth before you think
Your insincerities are clinging to me
Like the stench of your last drink [Shut up]

Did I really hear you say you're sorry?
Hard for me to believe
I don't get how you're buying your own story
You're piss broke emotionally

I'm watching
Listening
The volume's always the same

Actions speak louder than words do
I don't want to hear dead words from you
Actions speak louder than words do
I just want to see what you will do [Shut up]

So here it comes again
A deafening parade of duplicity
Birds falling from the sky
The air is poisoned by the breath you waste on me
[Shut up]

The thought of you becomes so disappointing
Hard for you to believe?
You never seem to fail change the stories
You so effortlessly breed

I'm watching
Listening
The volume's always the same

Actions speak louder than words do
I don't want to hear dead words from you
Actions speak louder than words do
I just want to see what you will do [Shut up]

Actions speak louder...

It's time to play again
Deception is your game
But why would you want to wear that shame?
It speaks louder than words

[Shut up]
Actions speak louder than words do
I don't want to hear dead words from you
Actions speak louder than words do
I just want to see what you will do [Shut up]

The thought of you becomes so disappointing
Actions speak louder than words do
[Shut up]
The volume's always the same

Actions speak louder...
