Your scent eats through my heart
Your body soaks up my affection
And if I get to close
I, will scar my intention

It comes and goes like sunlight
Seeping into my mind
It keeps me stirring in deep of night
Your mood holds my destruction

Coz I'm powerless to you
No chance for me now
So under control
No chance for me now
I'm fighting desire.

My body is weak from time with you
My heart burns for you existence
And if she moves to far apart
She'll erase me from her mind

She is the key to my crumbling heart
And the source of my misery
Like a virus she infects us
Each day one more will fall to her

Coz I'm powerless to you
No chance for me now
So under control
No chance for me now
I'm fighting desire.

I'm fighting desire x3
