(Buildings burn, people die.. but real love is forever)

she enters the room so calm and compulse she's got one thing on her mind as she makes her approach and her lipstick, it glistens like the moonlight and one kiss will bring you to your knees tonight

(chorus)

hello, i know you're wasting your time hello, i know she's tearing out your spine and if this keeps up you know she'll destroy your mind and i'll be waiting..

now that she's got you right where she wants you she'll take everything, she's got nothing to prove and her lipstick is stained across your collar and one kiss you'll swear that you love her.. you'll swear that you love her

(chorus)

and i'll be waiting..
