Hey!

Hey!

I've got the frequency to turn you on
I've got the frequency to turn you on
Superconductor, keep it goin'
I got the frequency to turn you on

Hey there, tin smiles
I been loadin' down your files
Movin' up your dials, and I think I know what's goin' on
I am programmed
Clicky-click at your command
Shift for a man with the heart of an automaton
Automaton
Hey!

Hey!

I got the frequency to turn you on
I got the frequency to turn you on
I got the frequency to turn you on
Superconductor, keep it goin'

All you seek and everything that you crave
Is comin' through to me
It's like a radio wave
All you seek and everything that you crave
Is comin' through to me

Hey!

I got the frequency to turn you on
I got the frequency to turn you on
Oh oh oh
Superconductor, keep it goin'
I got the frequency to turn you on

Me for the job
Got my hand upon the knob
Party is a throb if you're thinkin' that you wanna come
Listen in Baby, I know where you been
When you stick it on the skin, it's a shiny aluminium

Wait a minute
Aluminum
Hey!

Hey!
I've got the frequency to turn you on
I got the frequency to turn you on
Oh oh oh
Superconductor, keep it goin'
I got the frequency to turn you on
Hey!

Superconductor, keep it goin'
Hey!

Hey!
