The impinger's straight, holding the chemicals. The Columns hold, we're waxing mechanical.
And the blueprints clearly state that our plan is
Irrational.
We will find this heavy hearted rate hardly seems
Sensible.
All the pro's have gathered here today to diagnose that
We have lost our way.
The calibration's off to their dismay, but we truly hope
That you've enjoyed your stay.
So we will wait, soon to be sedative.
The actuator's great, but at this point not relative.
And the blueprints clearly state that our plan is
Irrational.
We will find this heavy hearted rate hardly seems
Sensible.
