don't mind the new hilarity just find the space in which you'll need all your gases and your war paint you always said the sanctity of your transmissions to the sea was destroyable & colorless now i fall into the lines of some new detriment the tradesmen covered up in mines, they won't hesitate you're crowning all the nominees ignoring scrap technologies from the roadway to the drunk tank you found the plan

it was so wasteful throughout your vast repellant feed it was precarious & disgusting
