

Ceremonial Oath "Immortalized"

Visit "Immortalized" on MotoLyrics.com

Now the seventh seal is broken and I close my eyes Waiting for some sign of salvation

Instead of your saviour I chose my self to suffer for the sins of mankind

Immortalized

Immortalized, my future lies dark Dark and endless before me

I outlive the earth, I outlive the stars Walking blind through the darkest of nights

Once again I try to rid me of the pain that burns inside and tap the hatred out

The beast of life, she feeds on me sucks my open wounds as I bleed
