"Cold Chill"

I get a cold chill
Guess I always will
Every time your memory fills my mind
I go back in time
To a young girl and a reckless young man
It tears me up 'cause I know I am the one
Who tore us apart
And still, I get a cold chill in my heart I've learned to say I'm sorry
And admit when I've been wrong
Just too bad I couldn't have learned that
Lot of lonely years ago
This ole heart is my reminder
What I did and didn't do
So 'til the day they lay me under
One thing will still be true (Repeat Chorus)
