"She Does"

Don't remember what I was saying
The first time I struck a conversation up
But I think that she does

I don't recall what song was playing
The first that I finally felt her touch
But I'm pretty sure that she does

All of those moments now are just a blur
Don't know exactly when I fell for her

But she does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train
She lifts me up, she calms me down
When I can't turn my life around
She does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows the meaning of love
She does

I know my family means the world to me
But sometimes I forget to call them up
I know that she does

I'm working hard every single day
I don't know how to say enough's enough
She does
Without her love I would be half a man
Sometimes I know I'm hard to understand

But she does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train
She lifts me up, she calms me down
When I can't turn my life around
She does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows the meaning of love
She does

She does something to me that I can't explain
She's a walk in the park, she's a runaway train

She's an anchor in a raging sea
When I need to fly she gives me wings
She does and I probably don't even see
All the little things that she does for me
If anybody on this earth knows the meaning of love
She does
