Somewhere in the shadows of my mind
I know there is, I know, I know there is
A girl who waits for me
Who only needs my touch to live
And I am sure that you are she

So walk to me and take me by the hand
And lead me, and lead, and lead me to
The bright untarnished sea
There give me love and share my dreams
And then I'll know that you are she

Don't even know the color of your hair
But once I see you standing there
I will know you instantly

So if you're in the fields
Across the way and wondering
And wondering and wondering if
You dare come up to me
Don't hesitate, don't be afraid
For I will know that you are she

So if you're in the fields
Across the way and wondering
And wondering and wondering if
You dare come up to me
Don't hesitate, don't be afraid
For I will know that you are she
