I swear if it wasn't for you I'd load this gun and start shooting and it wouldn't end pretty it wouldn't end pretty at all.

Oh dear, my dear... you keep me going, when no one else can.

Oh God, my God... please hear my prayers please listen.

I could never please you no matter what I try and do.
I could never please you no matter how much I love
you.

These nights these sleepless nights,
I wanna take a chainsaw to this bed.

Baby, you're amazing but everything else is bringing me down.

Baby, I love you, God knows I do. I'm gonna pick up this rock and shatter the moon.

This place isn't ready for me, I'll tear it down with my crooked smile
This place isn't ready for me, hell I invented chaos, chaos...

Hold me down, just hold me please... I love you...
