It's not difficult for me to say I love you
It wouldn't be difficult if you would say the same
And believe me when I tell you that I know you very well
I know you like I know my name

I think that I have met you somewhere in my dreams
I may never have met you at all
And I know you must be thinking, "What a silly girl!"
I know your every thought and scheme

I wake up to the feeling each morning
I go to bed to it at night
I know you, I love you

Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I know you as if I've known you all my life
I love you, I live you

One day you'll realize we're not strangers
If you'll open up your eyes and know me too
And see that we were meant to be together, my dear
And all the rest is up to you

I wake up to the feeling each morning
I go to bed to it at night
I know you, I love you

Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I feel you as if you've been a part of me
I know you, I love you

Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I think I know you more than you know yourself
I know you, I live you
Know you, live you
Know you, love you
Know you

And without me you'd stumble

And without you I'd fall
Without each other we would not be at all

Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
end
