I'll never open my legs again
To a man who's insecure
I'll never open my legs again
Unless I'm really sure

No, I'll never, never
Never be another fool

Sad but true, I slept with you
I thought we were in love
I even got me a rose tattoo
But that was not enough

No, I'll never, never
Never be another fool

Never, no
Never, never, never

Nothing but the best of me
I gave with open arms
Alive and well, I'm back from hell
Released from your charms
(It's time to go)

Scene 23, exit, fade to black
Tell me, why'd you have to come back?

This love you need to fade
Leave the best to yesterday
If this only one thing is true
I ain't gonna be another fool

Never be another fool

You think about callin'? Don't
