Will you be my psychoanalyst
Must I keep on coming, should I resist
And give enough trust in my conscious
Sit up or lies
No, I try not to make this confession
I close my eyes

'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me
Take me in to build your make believe?
Guide me, hold me
As we breathe
'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me

Tell me if you want me to give in
With your fairiest disguises, or everything
Could I touch you or warm up coldness of your eyes
Like a no burning flower, could crack the ice

'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me
Take me in to build your make believe?
Guide me, hold me
As we breathe
'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me
(X2)

'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me
Take me in to build your make believe?
Guide me, hold me
As we breathe
'Cause I burn and shiver,
When you look at me
(X2)

(As we breathe...)
