The Doctor's stuck in the Pandorica,
Amy might be dead and Rory's a
Roman with a gun in his hand,
Seems like things aren't going as planned

River's in the TARDIS,
The TARDIS is on fire,
She's feeling the heat
On repeat she'll require
Someone she can trust, someone with a bow tie,
But he's been locked up and left to die.

Oh my Lord, what will they do?
Seems impossible to get through
My mind is blown, I bet yours is too,
Well, I guess this is Doctor Who.

Rory's quite distressed and he starts to sob,
When the Doctor appears with a mop,
"Get me out of the Pandorica!"
"But you're not in the Pandorica."
"Yes I am, well, yes I was,
It's complicated, but I won't explain it now because..."
Then he disappeared into a hazy fuzz
That man, I can't explain what he does the things he does

Oh my Lord, don't have a clue,
These paradozes are hard to construe,
My mind is blown, I bet yours is too,
Well, I guess this is Doctor Who.

It's the big bang two,
And I need to review what on earth just happened
before my eyes.
Time has gone askew, the universe has too,
I'll try and explain to you the big bang two.
The big bang two.

The Doctor's got River's vortex manipulator,

Which he used to meet Rory two thousand years later

When they find Amy after her sleep in the box
They realize the sun is really the exploding TARDIS
Doctor saves River from the imitator star
They swarm and watch his back
Can't help but point out the obvious

Oh my God he's wearing a fez!
Oh my God he's wearing a fez!
Oh my God he's wearing a fez!
Oh my God he's wearing a fez!

Dalek pops up out of nowhere,
Shoots the Doctor, kills him, quite unfair,
He jumps back twelve minutes to the stairs,
He's dead, and everyone despairs.

Little do they know, the Doctor lies.
He's not stopping the universe's demise,
Amy says her last goodbyes,
The Doctor flies up into the skies.
The universe is back, it's true,
But the Doctor's said his final adieu,
Maybe you'll come back if she remembers you.

It's the big bang two,
And I need to review what on earth just happened
before my eyes.
Time has been renewed, the universe has too,
But Amy still can't help but cry.

There's someone missing, the question's who...

Then she remembers
Something old, something new,
Something borrowed, something blue

And that's the big bang two.
I hope it didn't confuse you.
