I believe everything happens for a reason
Why did we end up here?
Chronarchs dead, nothing left, all seems so confusing
Vortex can't just disappear

What happens when all the lights go out?
There's no way back
We're stranded now
What happens when everything goes dark?
It's got no life
Left in it's heart

I'm sorry, I'm so sorry
Seems I'm not that clever after all

Now my race, are erased, nothing but the memories
Folktales told through time
Legacy meant to be buried with the Yale keys
And my remaining lives

What happens when all the lights go out?
There's no way back
We're stranded now
What happens when everything goes dark?
It's got no life
Left in it's heart

I'm sorry, I'm so sorry
Seems I'm not that clever after all

A green glimmer of hope, we can't let it go to waste
If I give some of my life, we'll use it to escape this place Where are they running off to? I thought that they would care
Try to keep them safe, they don't know what lies out there

I'm getting old, and I can't carry on
I'm getting old, and I can't carry on
I'm getting old, and I can't carry on
I'm getting old, and I can't carry on
