Powered by the Eye of Harmony
I can travel anywhere in space and time
I'm linked to The Doctor symbiotically
Got his imprint on my briode nebuliser.

There used to be 305 of me
But the rest were dicommissioned and replaced.
Takes six pilots to fly me properly.
Only happened once at The Medusa Cascade.

The last Type 40 in the universe
But there's still so much to see [There's so much to see]
But i'll be going on adventures, so long as there's Huon Energy [There's Huon
Energy]
My chameleon circuit hasn't worked since 1963
But The Doctor won't give up on me.

My interior's in a state of Temporal Grace
Though on occasion that gets circumvented
Inside me there's an awful lot of space
Because I'm dimensionally transcendental.

I've withstood falling down for miles and miles
Suffered 3000 degree heat without scorching
Hit by the Titanic when I was in mid-flight
Every time he's sure to fix me.

The last Type 40 in the universe
But there's still so much to see [There's so much to see]
But i'll be going on adventures, so long as there's Huon Energy [There's Huon
Energy]
My chameleon circuit hasn't worked since 1963
But The Doctor won't give up on me.

The last Type 40 in the universe
But there's still so much to see [There's so much to see]
But i'll be going on adventures, so long as there's Huon Energy [There's Huon
Energy]
My chameleon circuit hasn't worked since 1963
But The Doctor won't give up on me.

The last Type 40 in the universe.
But there's still so much to see...
There's so much to see.
But i'll be going on adventures, so long as there's Huon Energy..

There's Huon Energy.
My chameleon circuit hasn't worked since 1963.
But The Doctor won't give up on me.
