Gas prices raises, the money keeps burning
Dropout rate rising, so what are they learning?
Sending the troops in the war so I turn it
To today's evening news

Welcome to the evening news
I thank you all for tuning in
Yes, I'm your host and your journalist
It's Chamillionaire, so let the news begin

Our helicopters out in the streets
Look at the screen, an' let's zoom it in
'Cause Cashis is live at the scene
Hey Cashis how are you my friend?

Got no time for no interviews
(Go-got no time for no interviews)
No time to trip don't be confused
'Cause this type of news depends on interviews

Got no time for no interviews
(Go-got no time for no interviews)
You know I keep my ear to the streets
So it's up to me to bring you the truth

I saw a movie were George Bush
Had a bearded man on his squad
So much power from oil money
That poor folks can't sit by him

No problem, Osama
Bin Laden, been hiding
So long that them pictures all starting
To look like him on them milk cartons

Don Imus made comments
That made everybody forget about him
That's him, Anna Nicole got pregnant
And had kids by him

Rest in peace to Virginia Tech
Too many innocent kids dying

Well let's just blame hip hop
And act like that's the big problem

Now I would give you news about Katrina
But you know I can't talk about Katrina
'Cause every time I talk about Katrina
They look at me like it's a misdemeanor

Anyways, there's way more
Important stuff that we can discuss
George Bush is playing golf
Everybody hush, he's about to putt

Gas prices raises, the money keeps burning
Dropout rate rising, so what are they learning?
Sending the troops in the war so I turn it
To today's evening news

And the world keeps turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
As the world keeps turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
As the world keeps on turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
This is your evening news

I know you take offense to certain words
I've heard worse, but I wouldn't blame ya
They say he's a entertainer
Don't worry about it, never mind Kramer

The Crocodile Hunter got stung
And the lion turned on the lion tamer
We keep sending troops to Iraq
I figured that we must like danger

Little kids don't learn in school
They go to school to go spray a gun
If you a parent, then be a parent
Get off the couch and go raise your son

Kobe just broke another record
Today's game he hit 81
Now they saying he's number 1
But yesterday they all hated him

OJ was named innocent
He got no sentence, he's still alive
It's very ironic that the lawyer
That defended him had to die

Well, now my cue card says
The price of gas isn't really high
But I'm not going to read that
'Cause we all know that, that's a lie

Gas prices raises, the money keeps burning
Dropout rate rising, so what are they learning?
Sending the troops in the war so I turn it
To today's evening news

We still haven't found Pac's killer
Still haven't found Biggie's either
30 minutes into the case
They got tired and took a breather

Snoop Dogg just got arrested
Everyday he gets a new subpoena
Innocent when murder was the case
So the prosecution got a middle finger

Hip hop is sweeping the nation
But the contents seem so degrading
Most rappers got new albums
That white kids are anticipating

If you don't like it on the radio
Or the television then switch the station
Flavor Flav get a lot of ratings
Bill O'Reilly somewhere is hating

Kanye just said what?
The president ain't got time for that
The White House is going to stay white
Even tho' we know Obama's black

9/11 was a calculation
And some would say it was a timed attack
He gave a speech on CNN
"They bombed us, now we're bombing back"

Where the heck is Osama at?
And I would love to talk about Katrina
But every time I talk about Katrina
They look at me like it's a misdemeanor

Anyways, there's way more
Important stuff that we can discuss
'N Sync making the band
And Milli Vanilli have broken up

Gas prices raises, the money keeps burning

Dropout rate rising, so what are they learning?
Sending the troops in the war so I turn it
To today's evening news

And the world keeps turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
As the world keeps turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
As the world keeps on turning slow
(Turning slow, turning slow)
This is your evening news
