Mo' money mo', mo' money mo'
(You bring me trou, you bring me trou)
Yeah, mo' money mo'
(You bring me trou, you bring me trouble)
(You bring me trouble but I'm still in love)

Yeah, having money is like a relationship know I'm saying Ery'body, always gon' get in your bidness (I'm still in love, I'm still in love)
Try to break it up, try to get involved in it (I think that I'm still in love)
But they really, need to mind they own business

Money don't do nothing, but bring you trouble (In love, I'm still in love) But for some reason I keep chasing you, I must be in love
(I think that I'm still in love)

You so bad that we getting mad, somebody that they wish they had
You're a dime and you know you mine, flipping with you right in my slab Relationship ain't the same, as the others back in the past See I tried to have someone like you but didn't add up to half

Cruising it with my queen, the jewels, the wrist and the bling
We moving and hit the scene, the movie, the flick a dream
Painting the city green, like green is the coolest thing You're oozing up in the jeans, we doing it as a team

I hopped in a different slab, that ain't got the easy take But you looking so good to them, that they told me tell me pass
Never told me slow it down, the rims keep on moving fast
When I'm driving I almost crash, when I stare at your sexy ass

The longer we stay together, your appearance is looking better
Not better off with the fellas, you gonna be mine forever
They always loving the yella's, that's why I nicknamed you Cheddar
But they'd better not touch ya or better see my beretta

You'll never leave by my side, even though they all try to take you Never turning on me, even though they all try to make you
As long as you by my side, there's nothing I couldn't pay for We'll make up and never break up, I stay in love with you paper

Money can't, money can't buy me love But she's acting like she love me 'cause I'm riding on dubs
Money can't, money can't buy me trust
But my money is attracted to the backstabbers

Money bring, money bring plenty haters
It be looking so good that I'ma prolly fall in love
Money you bring me trouble
But I still think I love you

She's as black as a African but they call her American Very thin, yeah she be messing around with married men
When he comes home, she's never asking him where he been
'Cause ninety-nine percent of the time, she was right there with him

Chances of him losing her in this life are very slim Think money doesn't grow on trees, you ain't checking every limb
She gon' be around for a while, she wants to marry him
She gon' still survive when he dies, she'll have to bury him

When you know you're with a dime, they'll treat you like you're special Broad that is sleep and you're sick because your's left
you Bring her to the church and the pastor says God bless
you

Bring her round your boys but be careful they gon' get you

The cash in a hidden place, ironically called it safe
And you prolly leave it in the safe like it's safe in the realest place
I hope you gon' stay awake 'cause they gonna enter and break
And the safe is the first thing that them haters gon' try to take

Money can't, money can't, buy me love
But she's acting like she love me 'cause I'm riding on dubs
Money can't, money can't buy me trust
But my money is attracted to the backstabbers

Money bring, money bring plenty haters
It be looking so good that I'ma prolly fall in love
Money you bring me trouble
But I still think I love you

He introduced her to his mother, his mother said that she love her
And after that he discovered, his brother done tried to cut her
They messing with one another, saw her under the covers
And now he gotta show his brother, the meaning of keep it gutter

And all I know is I love her, I mean he loves her Tried to control his temper as he leaned in and hugged her Just enough to get close to her, he screamed as he shoved her Out of the exit heard his brother scream, "You's a buster"

Don't touch her, what you better slow your roll quick Now matter fact back up, right now before I click, click What's this, told you to stop playing with me boy Hurry up girl let's go, you bring me trouble

She's falling to the floor, he picked her up and he's grabbing her Yelling out like he's mad at her, sounding like he's an animal Pulling and grabbing her, now he already damaged her He throws her in the trunk and the talks to her like a passenger

And that's when uh, you hearing the tires peel He's speeding out of the driveway, approaching the highest hill
Every time that you called me I came like I served you Even the boss I used to work for had the nerve to Tell me I wasn't good enough and didn't deserve you Told me I wasn't good enough and didn't deserve you I fought to keep you in my life and this the thanks I get Well thanks for all the good memories, I think I'm sick

(You bring me trouble but I'm still in love)

Today we bring you breaking news
Looks like there's a major car accident Authorities are in pursuit of an unnamed individual Who crashed his car into the front entrance
Of a gas station on the northwest side of town

Although there is not much information Known about the suspect
We are told, that the assailant tried to get away on foot
And the police are in close pursuit

The reason for the crash, may have been A loaded nine millimeter handgun
That may have accidentally been fired We'll give you more details as the story Unfold later today on the evening news
