Let's get it [Verse 1 - Chamillionaire] Ben Franklin, that's gon' be my mascot 'Cause for the dead presidents, I'll pull the mask out (gun cocked) Countin plenty dough, look how good my math got Never hoop a bad shot because I shoot with that pop (gunshot) While y'all was watchin Kobe jumpin over a car I was in a G4 jumpin over a mall Get a telescope, 'cause I know I'm a star All my millions got me feelin like I'm a over the law Hold too much dough for me to throw in a palm It'll take a day to count it, I'm a show ya tomorrow Rollin with a weapon like I know that it's war Get blitzed for your chips and you'll be holdin your jaw Last time I took a loss but now I'm ready to win Competition doesn't listen, you can never defend Vince Carter how a baller always bendin the rim Then I go and purchase more so I can bend 'em again Chain lookin stolen, ain't embezzled a gem So I gotta hold that iron like I've been in the gym I ain't goin back to record labels ever again My account would probably have to get to negative ten Naw, I don't mess with Jordan, I'll leave that one to Nelly But I got plenty cake like the Snackwells, Little Debbie Want that +California Love+ like that Mak and a veli So in a California club, I'm a pass it to Felli Told Famous you'll be famous hit me back on your celly We can go hit Vegas up and blow a stack when you're ready Always knew I had that glow like all the rappers in "Belly" They call me Prince Hakeem 'cause now I'm back with the semi (gunshots), uh [Chorus - Chamillionaire] - 2X I'm still gettin money, I'm still gettin money I'm still gettin money, gettin money mayne
