[Featuring: TamiLaTrell]

[Intro: Chamillionaire]

Downtooown, - livin' in that H-Tooown!

You know I love how you love to love me, baby!

[Chorus 1: Chamillionaire]

I riiide foor myyy hooome aand staaaate,

Where-we-be-ridin' voguees aand - swaaaangs

And-cups-be overfloooowed with - draaaank.

No, - weee doon't caaare whaaat - peeople saaaay;

My-city-been-through sooo much - paaiin

They-love-me-and-I suuure won't - chaaaange! - Won't Chaaaange...

[Chamillionaire:]

Music slow but I'm such a speeder;

Tried to exit the feeder? - Spotted me like a cheetah!

Looked in the car then he asked me if I'm a dealer,

Keep a tool and some screw so I told him: "I'm Bob Vila."

Young Tela, - feelin' like Derek Jeter;

I'll show your girl how I swing it as soon as I get to meet her.

Hate on me from the rear while they playin' follow the leader

All these caucasian diamonds, I must've caught jungle fever!

First they love it and then they hate it!

Welcome to Texas where flip-floppin' is overrated.

Musta not got the memo. - Say the happy you made it,

But they really full of hot air like the skinnies I just inflated!

Hard to say R.I.P. after timelessness get created;

You'd think that we'd live forever with' music, that's never dated!

We gon' treat every day like it's UGK's birthday;

When Bun say he's happy you made it, just tell him happy belated!

[Chorus 1]

[Chamillionaire:]

Yeah! - It's just foolishness that you hear!
Some that'll never get it will tell you that it's their year.
Some will say that you're finished the minute you disappear,
But if diamonds could tell the future my future looks crystal clear.
Can't get too comfortable when you no longer livin'
petty,
Ordered the chicken over the Alfredo with spaghetti.
She's in the mirror for an hour, say she's gettin' ready;
That's 59 minutes, that I could've been gettin' fetti.
Uh! - Let's get back in the mix!
You can dream about sleepin' while you out stackin'
your chips.
Stuntin' on 'em with all this candy immaculateness,
They walkin' in houses that isn't worth more than half of your wrist!
She said: "Yes! " - But do you think that you can run
long as you did with Paul?
Do photoshop make models think that they got a flaw?
Funny - how most be talkin' like they did it all;
And what's ironic is I can't see anythin' they did at ALL!

[Chorus 2: Chamillionaire & Tami LaTrell
