And in the morning you'll be gone just like i never knew you every image, picture and icon deleted like i never knew you like i never loved you my momma held me when i was crying your momma left you alone your mother's quiet laughter would make my mother moan

this time you'll see
i finally closed that door just like i never knew you before maybe i should get some sleep i got a big day ahead of forgetting about you and i'll make sure our common friends know i was the one who made it end ah, screw that who cares

i've left you behind

i finally closed the door like i never knew you before and i have crossed my heart enough to be free and if i ever think of you i know that i
will be...
me

it's like i never knew you

knew who?
