Well it's true that i did something wrong but so did you
so what do we do now?
how do we get to heaven?
seventy times seven

let's stop break up
people let's make up
you're welcome here with the rest of us let's not break up
people let's make up
you're really all of the rest of us who'd leave a child lonely make him thinking everything is all his fault? well, tell me this why do we do that to other adults?

let's stop break up
people let's make up
come inside here with the rest of us let's not break up
people let's make up
i bet you'd learn to love the rest of us i want to thank you all for coming here today (woo! yeah!)

and i know it's hard to be happy in these times (haha! you said it, pal!)
but i say, let the man speak (let him speak! let him speak!)

"fresh starts come from the heart. it's never too late to give another clean slate." (how many times to get to heaven?)
"the dude said seventy times seven!"

now let's not break up
people let's make up
i'm loving you like i love my mother
people let's make up

i'm wondering where you are today
people let's make up
you know you never had to go away why'd you ever have to go away?
