glider swing on the porch communion shirt
shiny shoes little boy kicks in the dirt hop in back of the car when church is through drive through the neighborhood sunday

turning newspaper page four eggs that fry
while the turntable arm drops 45's
black poodle on the couch

but as the sunbeams start to dim monday blues come creeping in climb in bed with mom and hide away
don't want to say goodnight please come around again

sunday
