all to hell with pride and fear when you need me, i'll be here through the thick and thin of lost hoo-rays let's be smart about our hearts and let's remember who we are through the endless screw-ups of our days when you're my friend

that means i'm with you in the end (i love you more)
you're my friend
that means i'm with you in the end (i love you more)

and when the body starts to go
stand up!
and hold my hand
and when there's no one left you know
stand up!
and hold my hand

amen.

you invest in me, and i invest in you to need this guy just a couple kids who bend the rules you're forgiving me, and i'm forgiving you too, every time we both know abandonment's for fools

when you're my friend
that means i'm with you in the end (i love you more)
that means i'm with you in the end (i love you more)

and when it's time for you to die
stand up!
and hold my hand

we won't ever say goodbye
stand up!

amen.
