should have seen this coming
way too good for anyone but me
think about it
because we know
you do

we start in december
we'll end in november
this time
we start in december
we'll end in november
this time september
came too fast too soon

you'll run out of lies all options have run dry
cause youre alone
i hope you suffer
we know
that you know
that we miss

we start in december
we'll end in november
this time
we'll end in november
this time september
came too soon

we'll end in november
this time september

we'll end in november
this time
we start in december
we'll end in november

this time september
too soon
