Come back, my dear
Come back and make my world again
Your voice, so clear
Your voice reminds me of a friend

You had a heart like a hero
You sang a song that only I could ever know
Where would I be without you
Where would I be?

How could the softest heart
Be separated by the word goodbye?
She believed in Heaven, yeah
She believed in everybody else

She believed in miracles but never let them help
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
She believed in everybody else but never in her, never in herself

There's no denial
You brought the world a little love
And fought each mile
And fought the fight more than my love

It was so much bigger than a cure
It wasn't bigger than a heart that isn't sure
Where would I be without you
Where would I be?

How could the softest heart
Be separated by the word goodbye?
She believed in Heaven, yeah
She believed in everybody else

She believed in miracles but never let them help
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
She believed in everybody else but never in her, never
in herself

I wish I could
(I wish I could)
Give what you gave to me

I wish I said
(I wish I said)
Please don't leave
(Please don't leave)

Please don't leave
Please don't leave me

She believed in heaven, yeah
She believed in everybody else

She believed in heaven, yeah
She believed in everybody else

She believed in miracles, but never let them help, whoa
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
Honey, honey, take my heart like money and run
She believed in everybody else but never in her, never in her
Never in her, never in herself
