Thought I was searching for something
But I'm not missing anything
Thought I was needy and wanting
Home sweet home

I thought that I had gotten lost
These prairie fields rolled out and in a moment there I was Underneath these northern lights
Home sweet home
Home sweet home

I'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, not going anywhere

The native dances to a drum
The fisherman returns in stormy seas to where he's from
The soldier stretches out his arms
Home sweet home
Home sweet home

I'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, not going anywhere, going everywhere
Going everywhere

I'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, not going anywhere
i'm here, not going anywhere
I'm here, going everywhere, going everywhere

Thought I was searching for something
But I'm not missing anything
Thought I was needy and wanting
Home sweet home
Home sweet home
