Stereotype

I see right through you (uh)
You boys are all the same
I'm different than (that)
I've caught on to your game
I know the sweet talk (talk)
Cause I made up that slang
You can walk walk but you cannot
Take the base

You wanted me but baby I don't want you
I'm sorry gotta be the one to break the news
I know what's on your mind
I get it all the time
I know the game you play
Cause that game is mine

Boy, too slow
Gotta catch up catch up
Too slow gotta catch up catch up (or moving too slow)
[Repeat]

Ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh

Now let me point out where
You made your mistake
You missed that (that)
I'm on another pace
First off
You didn't even take the time to ask my name
You're done
So move on
By the way my name is chantelle paige

You wanted me but baby I don't want you
I'm sorry gotta be the one to break the news
I know what's on your mind
I get it all the time
I know the game you play
Cause that game is mine

Boy, too slow
Gotta catch up catch up
Too slow gotta catch up catch up (or moving too slow)
[Repeat]

Ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh

Been around the world so I'm in the fast lane
Need to catch up cause your words are delayed
What kind of image do you think I portray
Good girl? Bad girl?
Not the cliché.
Independent grown
Made it on my own
I'm a play these boys while they play my ringtone
Ah huh...
So play catch up catch up
Or step outta line & I'm a call the next up
You wanted me but baby I don't want you
I'm sorry gotta be the one to break the news
I know what's on your mind
I get it all the time
I know the game you play
Cause that game is mine

Boy, too slow
Gotta catch up catch up
Too slow gotta catch up catch up (or moving too slow)
[Repeat]

Ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh ah ah ah ah ah ohh ohh
