Abused, alone you're feeling so unloved
Can't open up, you keep it all inside
You cut yourself to let your body cry
Why don't you just use those beautiful eyes

You are worth something more
You matter, someone's there to love you like you should be loved
Don't need to hurt yourself
You are worth something more

Sitting in front of the mirror again
Wishing that you could look more like them
The perfect body comes with endless hurt
Regret fills life don't treat yourself like this

Trying to fill the void you know's inside
Using yourself to keep him by your side
His empty words causing you so much pain
Can't you see you're better off without him?

You are worth something more
like you should be loved
Don't need to hurt yourself
You are worth something more
