Darlin'
You hurt me and
You broke my heart
Please understand
You've got that something
That pulls me back
Every time
Your mystery is so strong
I can't even be your friend
So you see
This romance has got to end

You don't know what you could've
Had in me
I gave you everything

But you didn't want it
You threw it all away
Oh, what you could've
Had in me
You silly boy
You pretty boy
It's a pity, boy

So why don't you leave?
Walk out the door
Say your goodbyes
And don't come here no more
If you're so good, good to me
Why am I always crying?
