A law abiding citizen
Given five years in prison
For something that he didn't do
The justice system fucks you
Left to rot
Branded him a criminal
His scars remain invisible
Unjustfully demoralized
All because of someone's lies
No justice, no justice
No justice, just us
A record that will never leave
Blinding him to succeed
A world built of perfection
Now he walks the street alone
Got no place to call his home
Society has its back turned
The system still remains adjourned
For something that he didn't do
The justice system fucks you
No justice, no justice, no justice, just us
