Walking home from work and she's almost there
But she's not alone and she's not aware
He throws her to the ground and says open wide
She can't get away as she starts to cry
He seems to get his pleasure from all her cries of pain
SHE WON'T FORGET!
The only fact remains she will never be the same
NEVER FORGET!
DON'T BECOME A VICTIM!
Don't be controlled
It could happen young and old
Don't stand for the abuse
Her step dads drunk again she can hear him yell
Just another night in her teenage hell
He busts into her room and he pulls her on the floor
After it all she crawls into her bed
SHE WON'T FORGET!
With all her secrets locked up inside her fucked up head
