Heyi, heyi, layidelo.
Heyi, heyi, layidelo.
One star in a million,
one voice in a thousand,
I will know your love.
I will know your love.
I sailed on an ocean,
t'was so long ago,
but I will know your love.
I will know your love.
I'll know your voice.
I'll know your touch.
I know this much.
I will know your love.
One chance that'll come back,
one dance in your arms
and I will know your love.
I will know your love.
Ah, ah, ah, ah.
Your tender kiss deep from the soul.
For only this my heart unfolds.
I'll know your voice.
I'll know your touch.
I know this much.
I will know your love.
One star in a million,
I've got a feeling
I will know your love.
I will know your love.
I will know your love.
I will know your love.
