Instead of fear
Instead of blinded eyes
Instead of shame
Instead of all my lies
Instead of an orphan without a name
I hope you see Jesus

Instead of anger
Instead of unbelief
Instead of weakness in the heart of me
Instead of a wounded soul that sometimes loses faith
I hope you see Jesus

I hope you see Jesus
I hope you see Jesus
Standing in my place
Bearing all my shame
I hope you see Jesus

Instead of voices in a faceless crowd
Instead of prophets crying out from behind the shroud
Instead of fingers pointing out the blame
I hope you see Jesus

I hope you see Jesus

I hope you see Jesus
Standing in my place
Bearing all my shame
I hope you see Jesus

I hope you see love
I hope you see love
I hope you see love

Oh My God, when you look at us
A broken people who have turned from love
Instead of the words we throw and the wars we wage
I hope you forgive us
I hope you see Jesus
I hope you see Jesus
I hope you see Jesus

Standing in our place
Bearing all our shame
I hope you see Jesus
Standing in my place
Bearing all my shame
I hope you see Jesus
