Today is not a good day
Stranded in the heartache
Watching all the world race and pass me by

Like a wave on the ocean
Comes a flood of emotion
And it cant go unspoken
No it cant go unspoken one more time

We fall apart just to come alive
A broken heart can shatter all the lies
A brand new start and a goodbye
We fall apart just to come alive

Yeah but this is still a good life
Standing in the sunlight
Scattering a long line
Of fear and shame
Cause underneaththe surface there's a heart and a purpose
And I swear that its just worth it
Yeah I swear that its worth it

It not in vain

We fall apart just to come alive
A broken heart can shatter all the lies
A brand new start and a goodbye
We fall apart just to come alive
Just to come alive

You save me
You save me
Im alive Im alive
Cause you save me

We fall apart just to come alive
A broken heart can shatter all the lies
A brand new start and a goodbye
We fall apart just to come alive

Just to come alive
