

Charetta "Stop The Cycle"

Visit "Stop The Cycle" on MotoLyrics.com

You hold on to everything
You dwell on nothing
You run in circles

Obsessed your flaws
Obsessed with your flaws
And you will fall

You can't let go
Smother the evidence
Strangle the Witness
No one needs to know
Blame me for this
Suffocate my memories
Repress my name
Stop the cycle Stop the cycle

You fear the inevitable
You trust no one
You hate when she cries
Obsessed with your flaws

You can't control them
You must control yourself
