Far beyond my lonely dream
I saw you wave to me
I'll all intend to claim
Waited you forever
Wanted to remember
And now I'm opening the door

I'm here to lighten up the day
For me and for our love
I'm always here to stay
Who wins golden ocean smiles
And these joyful travels countless miles
Many silent hopes will rest its wings to fly again
All the shining lights will gather to its head

Our destiny, it's all true fantasy
I'll share my love to help you through the night
Far as the sky my heart will reach out to the one who cries
I will never leave you all behind

Our destiny, it's all true fantasy
I'll share my love to help you through the deepest night
Far as the sky my love will blow away your pain, no
cries
I am always here to sing
To sing a song for you
I am always here to sing
To sing a song for you

Together underneath the sun

We hear the birds whistle
And music hard be gone
Melodies in the air
Carry lots and lots of muse to share
Many vibrant shows I saw them yesterday
All the precious spells will never fade away

The symphony have massive harmony
Spare the strength to brighten up the weaker world
Far as the sky we've got to search for all the caring souls

I cannot have seen the truth
If it wasn't for you
I cannot have seen the truth
If it wasn't for you

Our destiny, it's all true fantasy
I'll share my love to help you through the night
Far as the sky my heart will reach out to the one who
cries
I will never leave you all behind

Our destiny, it's all true fantasy
I'll share my love to help you through the deepest night
Far as the sky my love will blow away your pain no cries
I am always here to sing
To sing a song for you
I am always here to sing
To sing a song for you

To sing this song for you
