You fucking girls, I've got enough problems as it is.
I'm sick of all these flings ending up like shit.
How come all of a sudden I'm caught up in such a mess?
Just like Ursula, I need something off my chest:

I can't fucking take this. I'm going insane
Cuz dealing with the ladies ain't my favorite game.
To all of you liking me doesn't matter anymore,
And why do I always end up feeling like a whore?

I'm sick of feeling bad for something I didn't do
And to think that all my problems are because of you
Is probably the most fucked up thing in the entire world.
Now my life is hell cuz of a stupid girl,
And just because I'm 19 and at my sexual peak
Doesn't mean that I wanna fuck you!

I can't fucking take this. I'm going insane
Cuz dealing with the ladies ain't my favorite game.
To all of you liking me doesn't matter anymore,
And why do I always end up feeling like your fucking
whore?
