Just cuz I don't fill myself with drugs to get away
Just cuz I know who I am without having to get laid
Just because I walk away from your stupid fights
Just because I don't hate what I am, my parents, hate my life

You've got to say I suck
Punk rockers, ha!
Stupid hypocrites
Just like all the rest

Just cuz I care about the future. Just cuz I wanna change
Just cuz I can see beyond a life of hate and pain
Just cuz I'm not confined to a world of flesh and bone Just because yer too scared to think about it. Just cuz I hit home
