Proving yourself to me only proves why complainers like you
Should take your expectations and go to hell
Cuz criticisms are constructive only from people
Who are productive and just trying to be nice
Only meant listening to your lame t-shirt design advise.
Hey fucker, spare me some change of mind
And cut the fuckin tie hanging around me
Cuz you're no friend of mine and your personality
Is something my phone bill could certainly lack
So don't act surprised someday
When that gift horse starts punching you back.
