I'll never say never to always. I'll never say always to none.
To seem is to dream a dream aloud cause one is one is one.
For always is all is forever cause one is one is one.
Look inside yourself for your father, all is none, all is none, none is one.
It's time to call time from behind you, the illusion has been just a dream.
Valley of death and I'll find you now is when on a sunshine beam.
So bring only your perfection, for there love shall surely be.
No cold, pain, fear or hunger. You can see, you can see, you can see.
